RACE NUMBERS

Each entry will be given a number bib or board which must be displayed as instructed at all times.

START TIMES

SATURDAY – competitors should set their own start time, between 9:00am and 12:00 noon, taking into account their expected speed over the course so that they arrive in Falkirk within the finishing window (2:30pm to 5:00pm). Anyone who feels that they need to start earlier should contact the organiser to make arrangements.

SUNDAY – Each competitor will be allocated a start time for Sunday based upon their elapsed time for Saturday. The slowest competitors will start first with quicker competitors starting later and the fastest will start at 11:30am. Competitors must start at the time allocated by the organisers. Competitors may request an earlier start time if they feel they will need more time. Competitors will not normally be allowed to start later than their allocated time and other than in exceptional circumstances their time will start at the allocated time even if they actually start paddling later. No competitors will be allowed to gain advantage by starting alongside a quicker crew.

CHANGE OVERS

Incoming paddlers in the Relay, Team Relay and Open Team Relay classes must ensure that their boat overlaps the outgoing paddler before the bib is handed over.

PORTAGES

All portages must follow the general line of the canal and should be made along the tow path. Competitors may portage in places other than around locks or natural blockages but at all times must follow the route of the canal and in no way shorten the course.

Relay and Team Relay paddlers may assist their own team members at portages. Relay and Team Relay boats which are not the active boat may be handled by non team members.
